

Explore the Bible: An apologetic approach to ministry

February 28, 2022

The Explore the Bible lesson for March 13 focuses on 1 Thessalonians 2:1-12.

Connect360: Use It or Lose It

February 28, 2022

Lesson 13 in the Connect360 unit “Jesus Storyteller: Timeless Truths From His Parables” focuses on Luke 19:11-27.

Creative evangelist unlocks the mystery of the gospel

February 28, 2022

Rich Landry, better known as Captain Escape, captivates audiences with illusions, stunts, escapes and humor as he attempts to unlock the mystery of the gospel through his creative evangelistic presentations.

Baptists globally called to pray for Ukraine

February 28, 2022

The Baptist World Alliance has invited Baptists worldwide to join in a unified hour of prayer at 9 a.m. Central on Feb. 28.

Blasts force students to evacuate from Odesa seminary

February 28, 2022

Missile blasts forced the evacuation of students from Odesa Theological Seminary, but administrators and employees of the Baptist school hope the campus may be used to offer aid to people displaced by the Russian invasion of Ukraine.

Baptist churches in Ukraine mobilize for ministry

February 28, 2022

Even while bombs fell around them, Baptists in Ukraine made plans to care for their neighbors who were displaced by a Russian military invasion.

Around the State: Black and white pastors discuss friendship

February 28, 2022

Steve Wells, pastor of South Main Baptist Church, and Ralph West, founding pastor of Houston's Church Without Walls, discussed their friendship during a session at a conference on racial healing offered both online and at Baylor University's Truett Theological Seminary.

Baptist Women in Ministry seeks award nominations

February 28, 2022

Baptist Women in Ministry is accepting nominations for the 2022 Frankie

Huff Granger Distinguished Mentor and Church of Excellence awards.

Sexual abuse report not the end for SBC Executive Committee

February 28, 2022

A question about the scope of the investigation into allegations of mishandling sexual abuse claims by the SBC Executive Committee led to a pledge by committee members to see the upcoming “final” report as only the start to dealing with its impact.

Most open to spiritual conversations, few Christians speaking

February 28, 2022

Americans are curious about the religious devotion of others and are willing to discuss the topic, but most say they rarely have conversations about faith with their Christian friends.

Team formed to seek SBC Executive Committee president

February 28, 2022

The Southern Baptist Convention Executive Committee created a search team to begin the entity's search for the new president and CEO.

On the Move: Walker

February 28, 2022

New director named for Mount Lebanon Baptist Encampment.