

More than half of Americans rarely go to church

March 26, 2024

More than half of Americans (56 percent) say they seldom or never attend religious services, according to new data from Gallup.

Threats to staff at faith-based nonprofit increase

March 26, 2024

Over the past few months, staff members at Catholic Charities across the country have become the targets of some media personalities, conspiracy theorists and even members of Congress.

Charlie Dates counters John MacArthur about MLK

March 26, 2024

Charlie Dates defends Martin Luther King Jr. after John MacArthur declared King “was not a Christian at all.”

Survey: Hispanic pastors face unique challenges

March 26, 2024

Pastors of Hispanic Protestant churches in the United States maintain immense gratitude for their role, but many face financial struggles. Lifeway Research partnered with numerous denominations and church networks to survey Hispanic Protestant pastors in the United States.

Los pastores protestantes hispanos se enfrentan a necesidades congregacionales y comunitarias únicas

March 26, 2024

Los pastores de las iglesias protestantes hispanas de Estados Unidos tienen una inmensa gratitud por el papel que desempeñan, pero muchos se enfrentan a dificultades económicas.

Dip in U.S. support for LGBTQ rights across religious groups

March 26, 2024

Most Americans continue to support LGBTQ rights, but a new poll from PRRI shows a dip in support, including among religious Americans.

Christians urged to answer biblical call to peacemaking

March 26, 2024

American Christians must answer the biblical call to peacemaking and help write “a good ending to this season in history,” said Bob Roberts, co-founder of the Multi-Faith Neighbors Network.

Consider worship through lens of autism, researcher urges

March 26, 2024

“Do I belong here?” When people with autism and their families ask the question about church, it may be difficult to answer.

New ending for ‘How Great Thou Art’

March 26, 2024

The well-known and beloved-by-many words of “How Great Thou Art” have had a long and varied trajectory from Swedish poem to German hymn to a tradition at Billy Graham crusades.

Survey finds pockets of support for Christian nationalism

March 26, 2024

A new report released Feb. 28 found roughly 3 in 10 Americans express some sympathy for Christian nationalism.

Christians disagree about Alabama embryo ruling

March 26, 2024

Many Christian and other religious views of IVF do not align with Alabama Supreme Court Chief Justice Tom Parker's legal opinion citing Christian doctrine.

New animated series encourages kids to watch the Bible

March 26, 2024

The Christian production company Revelation Media will unveil its new animated Bible project on Easter, with the first segment aiming to depict the stories of the Book of Genesis in a child-friendly way.