

Campamento se ajusta a las necesidades de las siguientes generaciones

September 27, 2019

Durante los pasados 26 años el Campamento Anual para Adultos Mayores se ha preparado para responder a las necesidades y preocupaciones de los adultos bautistas mayores de Texas.

Nederland pastor nominee for re-election as BGCT 1st VP

September 27, 2019

Jason Burden, pastor of First Baptist Church in Nederland, will be nominated for a second term as first vice president of the Baptist General Convention of Texas.

Most evangelicals say they value civility, study shows

September 27, 2019

A LifeWay Research study explored the perspectives of American evangelicals on civility, politics, media consumption and how likely they are to engage with views different from their own.

South Plains Hispanic pastors emphasize hard work

September 27, 2019

For many South Plains families, the lesson learned from working the land is clear: Hard work brings better results. Two pastors of Hispanic Baptist churches in the region emphasized the same is true when it comes to nurturing disciples in their congregations.

Anne Graham Lotz says joy never left after cancer diagnosis

September 27, 2019

Anne Graham Lotz's journey has been a tough one lately. But the 71-year-old Bible teacher and daughter of Billy Graham says she has refused to give up hope and her faith remains a constant.

‘Chaos’ calls for civility: Mattis speaks at DBU

September 27, 2019

Gen. James Mattis, former U.S. Secretary of Defense, spoke at Dallas Baptist University about his new book, the need for leadership and the importance of civility in today’s culture.

USDA grant funds Baylor study of rural home food delivery

September 27, 2019

A researcher with the Texas Hunger Initiative at Baylor University earned a $5 million grant from the United States Department of Agriculture for a project to expand access to food for students living in rural Texas communities.

Liberating voice: First African American Preaching Conference at Truett

September 27, 2019

Remembering the arrival of the first African slaves to the American colonies, the first annual African American Preaching Conference proclaimed the liberating voice of black preaching.

TBM offers help, hope and healing in Southeast Texas

September 27, 2019

Working in sweltering humidity, Texas Baptist Men volunteers serve meals, remove damaged materials from flooded homes and offer hope in Southeast Texas.

Evans to be nominated for second term as BGCT president

September 27, 2019

Michael Evans, senior pastor of Bethlehem Baptist Church in Mansfield, will be nominated for a second term as president of the Baptist General Convention of Texas.

Around the State: HSU Cowboy Band welcomes high schoolers

September 27, 2019

Hardin-Simmons University's Cowboy Band welcomed high schoolers from around the region for High School Band Day. Diego Silva, director of the Buckner Family Hope Center at Penitas, was part of the inaugural Faith and Opportunity Fellowship Sept. 16-20 in Washington, D.C.

Board approves $35.1 million budget recommendation

September 27, 2019

Messengers to Texas Baptists' annual meeting will consider a $35.1 million total Texas 2020 budget—a slight decrease from this year's $35.9 million budget.