

In Touch: Hosting Texas Baptists Camp managers

March 8, 2015

Hello, Texas Baptists. It was our pleasure to host the Texas Baptists Camp managers in your Baptist Building. For information on Texas Baptists encampments, contact Susan Ater. She does an excellent job with our camps, and we are grateful for her work.

David HardageWe also were able to host an intentional interim training conference at your Baptist Building. Karl Fickling heads up that initiative. For more information on intentional interim training, contact Karl.

Recently, I spent Sunday morning at New Sunset Community Church in Killeen. It was a wonderful morning of worship, and I'm grateful to have been invited to be part of their service.

If you are looking for a good read, check out Pastor Kevin Moore's book Holy Rebellion. He answers the question: "Can rebellion be holy?"

Hollas Hoffman, one of our oil patch chaplains, is featured in a Washington Times article. We are proud of his work.

Our communications department has started a new outreach effort for churches. Get great church communication advice from the Texas Baptists

Comm Shop. Visit the site for helpful blog posts.

Another successful Executive Board meeting has come and gone. Thanks to everyone who braved the weather and made the trek to Dallas. During Monday evening's program, I made a presentation of our organization's reset. It is after years of prayer and planning this reset is being put into effect.

Thanks for your love and support.

David Hardage is executive director of the Baptist General Convention of Texas Executive Board.
