

SERMONS FROM
G A L A T I A N S

The Proper Pattern for Life

G A L A T I A N S

1. Christians can live in freedom only to the extent that they understand what Christian freedom is
not. 5:13a-b

Christians are called to be free. 5:13a

The freedom Christians
have in Christ is not a license to indulge in
sinful, self-centered
lifestyles. 5:13b

Have I used my Christian freedom to indulge the worst
parts of myself?

G A L A T I A N S

2. In Christ, I have the freedom to give myself away in loving servitude to others, bringing about what is best for someone who is not me. 5:13c-14

Freedom in Christ is to be used in loving
service to others.

5:13c

God's will for His people is that they
work for the long-term
best interests of others
just as they care and
provide for themselves.

5:14

In what ways am I
investing my life in loving service to others?

G A L A T I A N S

3. The Christian community will destroy itself when it chooses against following Jesus' pattern of selfless, sacrificial service to others. 5:15

Am I damaging the fellowship and witness
of the church with my self-centered pursuits
and my refusal to work
for the good of others?

68,000 sq. feet
120 fueling stations
80 soda dispensers
27 cash registers
4 Icee machines
33 urinals
50 toilet stalls

Your
church is not Buc-ee's.

G A L A T I A N S

I invite you to ask God to show you the truth about your life and relationships.

Have you been using your Christian freedom to indulge the worst parts of yourself?

Are you damaging the fellowship
and witness of your church by your self-centeredness?

G A L A T I A N S

I invite you to repent and turn to Christ, laying
down your rights,
preferences, needs, and
desires in loving service
to others in Jesus' name.
