Re: A Call to Keep Our Unity

Dear SBC Executive Committee:

My name is Mike Law and I have the privilege of serving as a pastor of Arlington Baptist Church in Arlington, VA. Thank you for your labors in serving Christ and Southern Baptists around the world. I write concerning my motion to amend the SBC Constitution to include an enumerated 6th item under Article III, Paragraph 1 concerning “Composition.” As offered and referred to you at this past June’s annual meeting, the enumerated 6th item would read: “6. Does not affirm, appoint, or employ a woman as a pastor of any kind.”

Personally, I felt the need to offer this amendment because five Southern Baptist churches, roughly within a five-mile radius of my own congregation, are employing women as pastors of various kinds, including women serving as “Sr. Pastor.” Many others have found that a number of Southern Baptist churches appoint, affirm, or employ women as pastors in their areas, too. These churches often use a modified title – co-pastor, worship pastor, women and children’s pastor, discipleship pastor, or youth pastor – but all trade on the office of “pastor.”

The signatories to this letter join me in urging you to recommend the above amendment at the 2023 annual meeting. This action will bring clarity to the current confusion in our Convention, as well as “keep the unity of the Spirit in the bond of peace” (Eph. 4:3, CSB). The reality is that our Convention’s Statement of Faith summarizes those things “which are most surely held among us” and “which we believe” (Preamble to the Baptist Faith & Message 2000). Article 6 of the Baptist Faith & Message 2000 says that a New Testament church’s “scriptural officers are pastors and deacons. While both men and women are gifted for service in the church, the office of pastor is limited to men as qualified by Scripture.”

Even before the Baptist Faith & Message 2000, at the 1984 annual meeting, the Convention recognized that Scripture, “excludes women from pastoral leadership” and “pastoral functions” through the “Resolution On Ordination And The Role Of Women In Ministry.” This matter has long been settled by Southern Baptists. Ushering women into the pastoral office in Southern Baptist churches unsettles our Convention’s unity. We, therefore, urge you to act on Biblical and Missional grounds already well-established and agreed upon by Southern Baptists in order to keep our unity.

Biblically, only men qualified according to Scripture (see 1 Tim. 3:1–7; Titus 1:5–9) may hold the office of “elder” (presbuteros, Titus 1:5) or “overseer” (episkopos, 1 Tim. 3:1, 2; Titus 1:7). These are terms synonymous with “pastor.” Indeed, the title “pastor” (poimēn), used by Paul in Ephesians 4:11, is used to speak of “pastors and teachers” (or, “pastor-teachers”). Paul does not leave us guessing as to how the household of God should be ordered (1 Tim. 3:15). He identifies the teachers of God’s church as qualified men (1 Tim. 3:2; cf. Titus 1:6).

Consider Acts 20. The “elders” of Ephesus (v. 17) are called “overseers” (v. 28), who are then instructed “to pastor (poimainein) the flock” (v. 28). This passage crystallizes the teaching of the New Testament (cf. 1 Pet. 5:1–4), in that the titles “elder,” “overseer,” and “pastor” all speak of the same office. And critically, this office is the one assigned to qualified men to teach the household of God. In other words, the biblical title of “pastor” is given to those who perform the biblical function of the office. This is how it was defined in the Baptist Faith & Message 2000, and this is how it should remain in our Convention.

Missionally, keeping our Convention’s unity on this issue, and thus our unity in the authority, clarity, and sufficiency of Scripture, cultivates a healthy soil in which our seminarians, church planters, and missionaries grow. Those raised in such a soil are those who, by God’s grace, adopt the attitude, “What he says we will do, where he sends we will go.” They are those who trust and obey God, precisely the kind of Christians needed to carry forward the mission of Christ and our Convention.

On the other hand, abiding women in the pastoral office materially harms the work of the Convention because it cultivates disunity where we have long been united. It contaminates the soil of our Convention with distrust of and disobedience to the Scriptures, particularly 1 Timothy 2:12 and 3:1-7. Disunity and disregard of our biblical doctrine endangers our Convention’s cooperation (Amos 3:3).

Devaluing our doctrine will not lead to faithfulness or fruitfulness. Rather, if we learn anything from history, embracing empty doctrines will soon empty our Convention too. Consider the exodus among the liberal and mainline denominations. They abided with women as pastors for a time, then they embraced the practice – thereby abandoning sound doctrine – and so began their rapid decline.

Continuation of the mission and cooperation in the mission springs from a shared conviction and commitment to God’s message and means for the mission. Once again, that “the office of pastor is limited to men as qualified by Scripture” is one of the things “most surely held among us” and “which we believe” (Article 6 and Preamble). This is our Convention’s conviction and commitment, and we are not ashamed of it. We are glad and grateful for it. We are asking for you to guard our Convention’s conviction and commitment to God’s Word and our unity.

We are fully persuaded that it is “good when brothers live together in harmony” (Ps. 133:1). Unity comes from God, and we are called to keep it with the help of God (Eph. 4:3). Often that means forbearing with others who see things differently than we do. That’s the beauty of the Southern Baptist Convention. It is home to countless churches with different views on many things.

At other times, however, we must follow Jude 3 and contend for the faith by reaffirming our stated convictions and doctrinal commitments. This is one of those times. And so, we the undersigned pastors and professors, plead with you to dispel the confusion in our Convention and to keep our long-held unity by recommending this amendment to the SBC Constitution at the 2023 annual meeting.

We remain grateful to God for you and your labors for the mission of Christ and our Convention. You remain in our affectionate prayers.

Warmly in Christ,¹
